

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 2006 AND GOD BLESS YOU!

Graduate

Alma Mater

Interesting facts about these Holy Trinity youth

Anders Boodey	Wall High School	Anders will attend Philadelphia University, where he will major in Landscape Architecture.
Kyle Clayton	Communications High School	Kyle received two awards from the Wall Finish Line Club and a Parent, Student Faculty Association Award for scholarship and community service. He plans to attend Lafayette College, where he will pursue a degree in Engineering. He will be a member of the track team during the winter and spring seasons.
Danielle Cocks	Manasquan High School	Danielle will attend Sacred Heart University, where she will major in math education.
Patrick Magill Davis	Manasquan High School	Patrick will attend the Tulane University School of Architecture.
Sean Dodds	Wall High School	Sean will attend Roger Williams University, where he will major in Marine Biology.
Emily Dodenhoff	Red Bank Regional High School Visual & Performing Arts Academy	Emily received the Distinguished Service Award, which recognizes that she participated in the choral program for four years, and an award that recognizes that she was a vocal performance major for four years and a Chamber Choir certificate of achievement. Emily will continue her music studies at Brookdale Community College and will continue to study voice privately with Cynthia Springsteen.
Gary Finnigan	Wall High School	Gary is considering attending college to study business or education.
Jesse McKeivitt	Wall High School	Jesse received the World Language Award; Sr. Academic Award (World Languages) and Academic Achievement Award. He is a Bloustein Scholar; served Wall High School as President of the National Honor Society; and was a member of the Kiwanis Honor Society. Jesse will attend Duke University to study linguistics.
Eric McLaughlin	Manasquan High School	Eric will attend Rowan University, where he will major in music education.
Steven O'Malley	Manasquan High School	Steven will attend Seton Hall University.
Jared Pehanick	Brick Memorial High School	Jared will attend West Virginia University, where he will study advertising.
Andrew Ruge	Communications High School	Andrew received the Dean's Scholarship from Drexel University and earned a gold medal for photography (State of New Jersey) for his work in the recent Skills USA competition. Andrew will attend Drexel University, where he will major in advertising photography.
Evan Swingle	Manasquan High School	Evan will attend West Virginia University.
Tom Wall	Manasquan High School	Tom will attend Towson University, where he will be a business major.
Christopher White	Manasquan High School	Christopher will attend Missouri Valley College, where he will major in criminal justice and will be a member of the football team.
J. J. Woolley	Wall High School	J. J. received a German Club scholarship and a monetary award from the Wall Marching Band. He was also recognized for serving during his senior year as Drum Major. J. J. was a member of the National Honor Society and named Student of the Month (May). He will attend Lehigh University to pursue an Engineering degree.

(This list reflects information forwarded to the church office by the graduates' families. Do you know or are you a recent graduate who is not listed? Please drop a short blurb off in the church office or send it via e-mail to diane@holyltrinity-nj.org. We'll publish an update in the September Lamplighter.)

